SEMANA DE LA LATINA 2010
Central American Feminist Activisms

DAY ONE

TUESDAY | 3/30 | 5:30 PM
Dividing the Isthmus: A Conversation with Ana Patricia Rodriguez

Reception following talk
Maryland Room, Mary Mount Hall

DAY TWO

WEDNESDAY | 3/31 | 5:30 PM
Latina Testimonio: Speak your Mind & Tell Your Story
Juan Ramon Jimenez Room, Stamp Union (Room 2208)

DAY THREE

THURSDAY | 4/1 | 5:30PM
Roundtable Discussion: Central American and Chicana Feminist Dialogues
Speakers: Suyapa Portillo, Ana Patricia Rodriguez, Anayvette Maria Bran, and Evelyn Lopez
Prince George’s Room, Stamp Union

This 3-day event will bring together Latina scholars, activists, and community members to highlight their scholarly and cultural contributions. Interdisciplinary in scope, Semana de la Latina will center critical dialogues about the role of feminism(s) in Central American women’s cultural practices and scholarship. Campus community and general public are invited. For more information contact: the USLT Studies office at 301.405.3427, Robb Hernandez at robbher3@umd.edu, or Ana Perez at amperez@umd.edu.